2. This document contains facts relevant to each of the contraventions alleged by ASIC and admitted by the Respondents for the purpose of the Proceedings. 5. AFSH is and was at all relevant times:

- 5.1 a company incorporated according to law;

C. RELEVANT PROVISIONS AND CONDUCT

Relevant Code and Credit Act provisions

6. Section 72 of the Code governs aspects of the communications between a credit provider and a debtor where the debtor is facing hardship meeting their obligations under a credit contract entered into on or after 1 March 2013, summarised as follows:

- 6.1 If a debtor considers that he or she is, or will be, unable to meet their obligations under a credit contract to which the Code applies, the debtor may give the credit provider notice under s 72(1) of the Code (designated as a 'hardship notice'), orally or in writing, of their inability to meet their obligations.

- 6.2 Within 21 days after the day of receiving the debtor's hardship notice, the credit provider may give the debtor notice under s 72(2) of the Code, orally or in writing, requiring the debtor to give the credit provider specified information within 21 days. If such notice is given, the debtor must comply with the requirement (s 72(3)).
- 6.3 The credit provider must give the debtor a written notice which complies with s 72(4)(a) or (b) (as applicable) before the end of the period identified in s 72(5) of the Code. Different periods are specified in s 72(5) depending on whether the credit provider requires information under s 72(2) (and, if so, whether the credit provider receives information in compliance with the requirement or not). If the credit provider does not require information under s 72(2), the period specified is 21 days after the day of receiving the hardship notice.
- 6.4 With effect from 2 March 2014 to 15 September 2023, the credit provider was exempt from the requirement to give notice under s 72(4)(a) if that provision would have otherwise applied: ASIC Class Order [CO 14/41].
- 6.5 With effect from 15 September 2023, s 72(4) does not apply if the credit provider and the debtor agree to a change to the credit contract that defers or otherwise reduces the obligations of the debtor under that contract for a period not exceeding 90 days: s 72(4A) of the Code.
- 6.6 Subsection 72(4) of the Code is a civil penalty provision.
- 6.7 Section 175A of the Credit Act provides that the credit provider's obligation to give a written notice under s 72(4) of the Code continues until that act is done (s 175A(1)) and a credit provider who contravenes s 72(4) of the Code commits a separate contravention of that provision in respect of each day during which the contravention occurs (including the day the relevant pecuniary penalty order is made or any later day) (s 175A(2)). Section 175A applies in relation to a contravention of s 72(4) of the Code if the conduct constituting the contravention of the provision occurs wholly on or after 13 March 2019: National Consumer Credit Protection (Transitional and Consequential Provisions) Act 2009 (Cth), Schedule 8, Part 2, s 3.
