Important Information

1. An additional cardholder must be 16 years or older. Government regulations require NAB to obtain proof of identity from the additional cardholder before the additional card can be used. This may be a combination of a passport, birth certificate, drivers license and/or Medicare card. Proof of identity is not required from an additional cardholder who is already a NAB customer.
2. An additional cardholder gets a separate card and access to your credit card account (including via NAB Pay). This person may also be able to see your credit card activity, through Internet Banking for example. But you as the primary cardholder are responsible for all transactions conducted with the additional card, including those on linked accounts.
3. The terms and conditions applicable to your credit card account, set out the terms governing the use of an additional card.
4. NAB will provide your additional cardholder request within 10 working days. To enable your additional cardholder access to your nominated transaction account/s as well as your credit card account, call 13 22 65.

labelling an additional card

As the Primary cardholder, you can request to cancel an additional card by contacting NAB. You need to take all reasonable steps to return the additional card to NAB or to otherwise destroy the card by cutting it (including any chip on the card) diagonally in half. If you don't notify us you want to cancel an additional card, it can be used up to its expiry date for some purchases without reference to NAB.

Please read and sign

By signing below you acknowledge you have read and agree to the following:

- the information I have provided in this Request Form is true and correct.
- I have read the information on this Request Form including my responsibility for an additional cardholder, what access that I have and cancelling an additional card.
- I am responsible for any additional card issued and for all transactions made using the card or any operation of my credit card account by the additional cardholder.
- I am aware the additional cardholder can also use the additional card and PIN to access my other accounts I nominate for use in connection with my NAB card based electronic banking facilities. In this case the additional card will operate as a debit card for access to my accounts as outlined in the terms and conditions applicable to the card.
