Electronic Identity Verification

If you are new to NAB we will need to verify your identify. NAB is progressively rolling out enhanced system capability to manage it's identity verification process. We may be able to perform electronic verification in some circumstances, if you agree to it.

Electronic identity verification means that NAB may provide your name, address and date of birth to a credit reporting body (CRB), such as Equifax, and ask it to provide an assessment of whether the information provided matches information already held by the CRB. The CRB will use the information provided by NAB in addition to its own information to make its assessment. This is NOT a credit check.

In addition where identification documents such as Passport or driver's licence are used for identification purposes. NAB may contact the authority that issued the documents to verify them by using the Government's Document Verification Service.

You do not have to be verified electronically, instead you may choose to provide 100 points of identification in person.

If available, do you consent to electronic identity verification for this application?

Acknowledgment and consent

Acknowledgment and consent

By signing below, I acknowledge and agree as follows:

NAB may obtain personal information about me from a credit reporting body

NAB may obtain information about me from a credit reporting body, on one or more occasions, to assess my application (in relation to either consumer credit or commercial credit) or to collect any payment that is overdue in relation to credit that NAB gives me as a result of making this application.

NAB can give information obtained from credit reporting bodies about me to related companies

NAB can give information NAB obtains from credit reporting bodies about me to any of NAB's related companies to enable the related company to process another credit application I make to it and to collect any payment that is overdue in relation to that credit facility.

NAB may exchange personal information about me with other credit providers

NAB may exchange personal information about me with other credit providers. This information may be used to assess this application, assist me to avoid defaulting on my credit obligations, to notify other credit providers of a default by me, to assess my credit worthiness. This information may include credit eligibility information (that is, information NAB obtained from a credit reporting body or based on information obtained from a credit reporting body.)

NAB may exchange personal information about me with joint package holders/joint borrowers/joint applicants

If I am a joint applicant under this application or become a joint borrower under a NAB credit facility, NAB may exchange personal information about me with my joint applicants or joint borrowers to process this application and to administer the credit facility. If I am a joint member of a NAB package – such as the NAB Choice Package or Private Tailored Package – NAB may exchange personal information about me with other holders of my package. This is to provide and administer the package.

NAB may give information to guarantors and potential guarantors

NAB may give personal information about me to a potential or existing guarantor (or their authorised legal representative) to assist them to consider whether to act as a guarantor or to offer property as security and to inform them about:
