Regional First Home Buyer Guarantee

Fact Sheet 2024/25

1 July 2024

What is the Regional First Home Buyer Guarantee?

The Regional First Home Buyer Guarantee (RFHBG or Guarantee) is an Australian Government initiative that aims to support eligible regional home buyers to buy a home sooner. It is administered by Housing Australia under the Home Guarantee Scheme (HGS or Scheme) on behalf of the Australian Government.

10,000 Regional First Home Buyer Guarantees will be made available each financial year (up until 30 June 2025).

How does the Regional First Home Buyer Guarantee work?

The RFHBG can be used to buy a modest home with a deposit of as little as 5 per cent (lenders credit criteria apply). This is because Housing Australia guarantees to a Participating Lender up to 15 percent of the value of the property purchased that is financed by an eligible regional home buyer's home loan. The Guarantee is not a cash payment or a deposit for a home loan.

Eligible regional home buyers are able to buy in the regional area they have lived in during the preceding 12 month period, or an adjacent regional area.

Eligible regional home buyers can use the RFHBG in conjunction with other government programs like the First Home Super Saver Scheme or state and territory first home owner grants and stamp duty concessions.

Who is eligible?

- Individuals or joint applicants.
- Australian citizens and permanent residents who are at least 18 years of age.
- Individual applicants with a taxable income of up to $125,000 per annum, and joint applicants with a combined taxable income of $200,000 per annum, as shown on the Notice of Assessment issued by the Australian Taxation Office.
- Applicants (or at least one applicant if applying as joint applicants) who have lived in the regional area or adjacent regional area they are purchasing in for the preceding 12-month period to the date they execute the home loan agreement.*

- Applicants with home loan repayments of both principal and interest for the full period of the loan agreement (with limited exceptions for interest only loans, which mainly relate to construction lending). The loan agreement must have a term of no more than 30 years.
- Applicants must intend to be owner-occupiers of the purchased property.
- Applicants who have at least 5 per cent of the value of an eligible property saved as a deposit.
- Applicants can be either first home buyers or previous homeowners who haven't owned a property in Australia in the past 10 years. Prior property ownership includes an interest in real property (including owning land) in Australia, a lease of land in Australia or a company title interest in land in Australia.

You can find the full list of eligibility criteria in the RFHBG Information Guide available at www.housingaustralia.gov.au. Contact a Participating Lender to discuss your individual circumstances.

If you are eligible for the RFHBG, you are not eligible for the First Home Guarantee. Home buyers who are not eligible for the RFHBG, may be eligible for the First Home Guarantee or the Family Home Guarantee. What is a regional area?

A regional area is defined as:

- the Statistical Area Level 4 (ASGS SA4 2016) areas in a State or the Northern Territory that are not a capital city of that State or Territory; and
- Norfolk Island; or the Territories of Jervis Bay, Christmas Island or Cocos (Keeling) Islands; as defined in the version published by The Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) in July 2016.

* Employees who have been required to relocate for work may be exempt from this requirement. Applicants should check with their Participating Lender if this exemption applies.

The greater capital city areas of each state and the Northern Territory; and the entire Australian Capital Territory are excluded from the RFHBG. Home buyers in these areas may be eligible for the First Home Guarantee and Family Home Guarantee.

To confirm whether you live in a regional area, and where you may be able to purchase, you can access the Regional Checker at www.housingaustralia.gov.au

What type of property can be bought?

Eligible residential properties include:

- an existing house, townhouse or apartment
- a house and land package
- land and a separate contract to build a home
- an off-the-plan apartment or townhouse.

Specific dates and requirements apply for the different property types.

For transactions involving the purchase of land, Participating Lenders require your land to be titled prior to the issuance of a Housing Australia guarantee, therefore the land will need to be titled before the end of the 90 day pre-approval period.

If you are considering entering into contracts relating to purchasing land and for the construction of a home, you may wish to discuss with your participating lender (and broker, if applicable) all of the potential risks that may be associated with these transactions. It is worth noting that you are required to sign a fixed price building contract, and that any amendments to this after signing may impact the validity of your Guarantee place and your participating lender may require you to pay Lenders Mortgage Insurance (LMI) or fund these additional costs yourself.

Before you enter into a home loan agreement, you should consider talking with your lender (or broker) about the potential implications of changing interest rates or house prices on your individual circumstances.

What property price thresholds apply?

The RFHBG assists eligible regional home buyers to buy a modest home, which must not exceed the price caps shown in the table below. Note that the greater capital city areas of each state and the Northern Territory; and the entire Australian Capital Territory are excluded from the RFHBG.
