Explanation Regarding Unregistered Credit Ratings

In order to ensure fairness and transparency in the market, a registration system for credit rating agencies has been introduced in Japan under the amended Financial Instruments and Exchange Law ("FIEL"). Accordingly, when soliciting their customers using credit ratings issued by unregistered rating agencies, financial instruments firms are required by the FIEL to inform their customers of the fact that such credit ratings are the unregistered credit ratings and to provide other related information.

Significance of the Registration

Registered credit rating agencies are subject to the following regulations: (1) duty of integrity, (2) duty to develop the business management system for the prevention of conflict of interests / securing of the fairness of the rating process, (3) prohibition of assignment of rating in cases where the agency holds the securities to be rated, (4) duty to disclose information such as preparation and release of the rating policy and to make explanatory documents available to the public. Such rating agencies are also subject to supervision by the Financial Services Agency such as requirement of reports, on-site inspection, or business improvement orders. Unregistered rating agencies, however, are not subject to the above-mentioned restrictions or supervision.
