OUR PRODUCT DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

This policy document is also a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS). A PDS is a document required by the Corporations Act and contains information designed to help you decide whether to buy the policy.

Understanding your policy and its important terms and conditions

To properly understand this policy's significant features, benefits and risks you need to carefully read:

- about each of the available types of cover and benefits in the relevant sections, including any endorsements (remember certain words have special meanings – see the 'Introduction' section);
- 'When we will not pay a claim under your policy' section (this restricts the cover and benefits);
- 'Conditions of cover' and 'Making a claim' sections (these set out certain obligations that you and we have. If you do not meet them we may be able to refuse to pay a claim); and
- 'Other information' section (this contains important information on your duty of disclosure, our privacy policy and our dispute resolution process).

When you apply for the policy by completing our application we agree with you on things such as: the period of insurance; your premium; what property you want to cover; the limits you want for certain covers (if optional); excesses that will apply to you or others and whether any standard terms need to be varied (this may be by way of an endorsement). These details are recorded in the schedule we issue to you.

The base premium we charge varies according to your risk profile (e.g. the location of the property, the type of property being insured, the amount of cover required, optional additional covers selected and relevant claims history etc). In some cases discounts may apply if you meet certain criteria we set. You will also have to pay any compulsory government charges (e.g. Stamp Duty and GST) and Fire Services Levy (where applicable) plus any additional charges we tell you of. In some cases a service fee will apply where you pay your premium by instalments.

We tell you the total amount payable when you apply and if you effect cover, the amounts due will be confirmed in your schedule.

This policy sets out the cover we are able to provide you with. You need to decide if the limits, type and level of cover are appropriate for you and will cover your potential loss. If they are not, you may be underinsured and have to bear part of any loss you are not covered for yourself. To avoid this, people seek to set the sum insured for the relevant property being insured at its estimated replacement value.

You should also read the GST Notice to understand how GST is applied to a claim.

If you have any queries, want further information about the policy or want to confirm a transaction, please use the contact details on the back cover.

Instalment payments

If you pay your premium by instalments refer to the 'Conditions of cover' section for important details on your and our rights and obligations. Note that an instalment premium outstanding for 14 days may result in our refusal to pay a claim.

Premiums payable by instalments may be subject to minor adjustments (upwards or downwards) due to rounding and financial institution transaction fees may apply.

Minimum premiums apply

Minimum premiums may apply. Any discounts or entitlements may be subject to rounding and only apply to the extent any minimum premium is not reached. If you are eligible for more than one, each of them are applied in a predetermined order to the premium (excluding taxes and government charges) as reduced by any prior applied discounts or entitlements. Discounts may not be applied to the premium for optional covers such as flood and rent default by tenants (where applicable).

Cooling off period and cancellation rights

Even after you have decided to purchase this policy, you have a cooling off period and cancellation rights (see inside front cover and Conditions of cover section on page 39 for details).

Updating the PDS

Information in the PDS may change from time to time. Changes that are not materially adverse will be updated and made available to you at www.nab.com.au.

Alternatively, you can request a paper copy of any updated information, which will be made available to you free of charge by calling 13 29 28. If the PDS has been updated to correct a misleading or deceptive statement or an omission, that is materially adverse from the point of view of a reasonable person deciding whether to acquire this policy, we will provide you with a new PDS or a supplementary PDS.

INTRODUCTION

Welcome and thank you for considering NAB Residential Investor Insurance.

Allianz, one of Australia's largest general insurers is the supplier of this insurance product.

What the policy consists of Your policy consists of:

- this printed NAB Residential Investor Insurance Policy Document which sets out details of your cover and its limitations, and
- a schedule, approved by us, which sets out important details of cover such as who is insured, the cover(s) selected, the period of insurance, the limits of liability, excesses and other important information. This is referred to as the current schedule in this policy document.

You should carefully read and retain your insurance policy document and current schedule. These documents should be read together as they jointly form the contract of insurance between you and us. Any new or replacement schedule we may send you, detailing changes to your insurance or the period of insurance, will become the current schedule, which you should carefully read and retain.

Our agreement with you

We will insure you for:

- loss or damage caused by one or more of the insured events;
- the other benefits; and
- any optional additional cover(s) you have selected as noted in your current schedule as set out in this policy occurring during the period of insurance.

This cover will be given on the basis:

- that you have paid or agreed to pay us the premium for the cover you selected when you applied for cover and which the current schedule indicates is in force; and
- of the verbal and/or written information provided by you which you gave after having been advised of your Duty of Disclosure either verbally or in writing. If you failed to comply with your Duty of Disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under the policy in respect of a claim or we may cancel your policy. If you have told us something which is fraudulent, we also have the option of cancelling your policy from the effective date stated in the current schedule.

We only cover those parties shown in the current schedule unless otherwise stated in the relevant policy section as being a person entitled to cover.

For your assistance we have provided a full explanation of your Duty of Disclosure and the consequences of non-disclosure, under the heading 'Your Duty of Disclosure', on page 47.

How we will settle your buildings claim

1. At our option, we will:
 - a. repair or rebuild the damaged part of your building to the same condition as when it was new; or
 - b. pay you the reasonable cost of repairing or rebuilding any damaged part of your building to the same condition as when it was new.

We will adjust your claims payment in accordance with the GST provision noted under 'Conditions of cover', 'GST Notice' on page 42.

If we pay you the reasonable cost of repairing or rebuilding, this means the cost of repairing or rebuilding less any discounts available to us were we to repair or rebuild.

2. When it is not possible to use original materials during the repair or rebuilding process, the nearest available equivalent to the original materials will be used. We will not pay to repair or rebuild property which has not been physically damaged.
3. Unless we have agreed in writing, repair or rebuilding of your buildings must commence within six months of the loss or damage. If repair or rebuilding of your buildings is not commenced within six months of the loss or damage or any extended period to which we have previously agreed in writing, we will not be liable for any costs beyond the repair or rebuilding costs as at the date the loss or damage occurred.

4. If we have chosen to repair or rebuild your damaged building and you do not wish to repair or rebuild then, we will at our option:
 - a. pay you the reasonable cost to repair or rebuild your damaged buildings less an amount for depreciation based on the age and condition of the buildings; or
 - b. pay you the value of the land and buildings at the risk address immediately prior to the occurrence of the loss or damage less the value of the land and buildings immediately after the loss or damage occurred.
5. Rebuilding may be carried out on another site in the same vicinity provided that we agree in writing.
6. If the claim relates to loss or damage to fixed wall, floor or ceiling coverings, repair or replacement is limited to the room, hall or passage in which the loss or damage actually occurred.
7. If the claim relates to loss or damage to a dividing fence we will only pay half the cost of repairing the fence.

Further, if the claim is for gates, fences or freestanding walls damaged or destroyed as a result of storm, rainwater or run-off, we may deduct an amount from any claim settlement for depreciation based on their age and condition.

8. In no case will we pay more than the sum(s) insured shown in the current schedule (less any excess[es] which may be payable) unless we have stated differently under 'Insured events we will pay' on pages 16 to 20, 'Other benefits we will provide' on pages 22 to 30 or 'Optional additional covers' on pages 31 to 36.
9. If you are entitled to use bond monies to settle or reduce any loss or damage you must do so. To calculate the amount payable under this section we will deduct the amount of any bond monies remaining after you have paid allowable reletting expenses and we will then settle your claim subject to the policy conditions.

- d. secure your buildings against unauthorised entry whenever the risk address is left unattended by you or any other person.

4. Property inspection reports

You must complete a property inspection report or have your authorised real estate agent or a qualified appraiser complete a property inspection report:

- a. at the time when a new lease or rental agreement commences;
- b. at the time when an existing tenant vacates the property; and/or
- c. at least on an annual basis if there is long term tenancy.

In the event of a claim we will require copies of the property inspection reports.

5. Cancellation rights under the policy

- a. You may cancel or return this policy at any time by contacting us.
- b. We have the right to cancel this policy where permitted by law. For example, we can cancel:
 - if you have failed to comply with your Duty of Disclosure;
 - where you have made a misrepresentation to us during negotiations prior to the issue of this policy;
 - where you have failed to comply with a provision of your policy, including the term relating to payment of premium;
 - where you have made a fraudulent claim under your policy or under some other contract of insurance that provides cover during the same period of time that our policy covers you; or

- where we agree to accept payment of premium by periodic instalment and at least one instalment remains unpaid in excess of one month from the date on which it was due and payable.
- c. If you or we cancel the policy we may deduct a pro rata proportion of the premium for time on risk, reasonable administrative costs related to the acquisition and termination of the policy and any government taxes or duties we cannot recover.
 - d. In the event that you have made a claim under this policy and we have agreed to pay the full sum insured for your property no return of premium will be made for any unused portion of the premium.

6. Non payment of premium by instalments – Right to refuse a claim

Where you pay your premium by instalments, you must ensure they are paid on time because if one instalment has remained unpaid for a period of at least 14 days, we may refuse to pay a claim. We will notify you if an instalment has not been paid.

7. Keeping evidence of the value and ownership of the insured property

You should keep evidence of the value and ownership of all property covered under your insurance policy. Receipts and/or valuations prove the value of your insured property. Photographs and instruction books will help provide evidence of your ownership in the event of a claim.

8. Premium payment by direct debit

You may have chosen to pay the premium for this insurance by direct debit from a financial institution holding your account. If you choose this option, the financial institution may dishonour the direct debit payment due to lack of funds in your account. If this occurs, we will charge you for any direct and indirect costs which we incur arising from the payment being dishonoured.

9. GST Notice

This policy has a GST provision in relation to premium and our payment to you for claims. It may have an impact on how you determine the amount of insurance you need. Please read it carefully. Seek professional advice if you have any queries about GST and your insurance.

Sums insured

All monetary limits in this policy may be increased for GST in some circumstances (see below).

Claim settlements – Where we agree to pay

When we calculate the amount we will pay you, we will have regard to the items below:

- Where you are liable to pay an amount for GST in respect of an acquisition relevant to your claim (such as services to repair a damaged item insured under the policy) we will pay for the GST amount. We will pay the GST amount in addition to the sum insured/limit of indemnity or other limits shown in the policy or in this schedule. If your sum insured/limit of liability is not sufficient to cover your loss, we will only pay the GST amount that relates to our settlement of your claim. We will reduce the GST amount we pay for by the amount of any input tax credits to which you are or would be entitled.
- Where we make a payment under this policy as compensation instead of payment for a relevant acquisition, we will reduce the amount of the payment by the amount of any input tax credit that you would have been entitled to had the payment been applied to a relevant acquisition.

Disclosure – Input Tax Credit Entitlement

If you register, or are registered, for GST you are required to tell us your entitlement to an input tax credit on your premium. If you fail to disclose or understate your entitlement, you may be liable for GST on a claim we may pay. This policy does not cover you for this GST liability, or for any fine, penalty or charge for which you may be liable.

MAKING A CLAIM

What you must do

We may not pay your claim if you do not act as follows:

1. Do not admit liability

You must not:

- a. admit guilt or liability, or make a promise or offer of payment in connection with any claim; or
 - b. offer or agree to settle any claim;
- without our written consent.

We are entitled to take over and conduct the defence of any claim made against you for damages by a third party. We have full discretion in conducting any negotiations, proceedings and the settlement of claims. If the claim is for legal liability, you may make a written request to us to agree that you are covered in respect of the claim.

2. Prevent further damage

You must take all reasonable precautions to prevent any further loss, damage or liability.

3. Contact the police

Inform the police immediately of any malicious acts, theft, attempted theft, burglary or loss of insured property.

4. Keep evidence of the loss or damage

You must keep evidence of any loss or damage to your insured property. You must not authorise any repairs or replacement unless they are urgently necessary for the sole purpose of you preventing further loss, damage or liability from occurring and you are unable to contact us.

5. Contact us as soon as possible

If there is any loss liability, injury or damage which is likely to result in a claim, you must give us immediate notice of the full details of any loss, anticipated or alleged liability, injury or damage.

You or your representative must give us full details in the manner we request which will be either:

- a. in writing by completing our claim form which will be supplied to you when you contact us; or
- b. verbally.

You must also:

- provide us with any original receipts, proof of ownership or quotes we require to settle your claim;
- provide us with any information we may reasonably require (including a copy of the current lease, proof of any bond held, notices provided to tenants and confirmation from your agent that you are actively seeking to re-lease your buildings) in the event your claim is for loss of rent, malicious acts or any other claim involving your tenant;
- inform us if your property is insured under any other policy; and
- give us immediate notice of the commencement of any legal proceedings against you.

What happens after you make a claim

1. Assist us with your claim

You must assist us with your claim. This means give us all the information and assistance with your claim which we may reasonably require. If you do not we may not pay your claim or provide cover.

If we have the right to recover any amount payable under this policy from any other person, you must co-operate with us in any action we may take.

2. End of cover following a total loss claim

If we accept a claim and pay an amount which:

- a. is equal to or greater than the total sum insured for any single part of the policy on the insured property; or
- b. is sufficient to pay you for the total loss or destruction of all the insured property under a single part of the policy;
- c. cover under that particular part of the policy will end.

3. Payment of unpaid premium following a total loss claim

If we accept your claim and pay you the total sum insured for your property:

- the amount of any unpaid premium for the period of insurance will be deducted from the amount payable to you,
- if we replace or rebuild the property, you must pay us the balance of any unpaid premium or instalments for the period of insurance.

4. Our rights of recovery

We have the right to recover from any person the amount of any claim payable to you under this policy and we will have full discretion in the conduct, settlement or defence of any claim in your name. If we recover more than the amount we paid to you on your behalf, we will pay you the balance.

5. GST

We may adjust your claims payment in accordance with the GST provision detailed under 'Conditions of cover', 'GST Notice' on page 42.

OTHER INFORMATION

Renewal procedure

Before this policy expires we will normally offer renewal by sending a renewal invitation advising the amount payable to renew this policy. You should carefully check the details contained in your renewal invitation. These details are the terms and conditions that apply to your policy, including but not limited to:

- the names of the people who are insured;
- the address of the property insured;
- any excess which you must pay towards the cost of a claim; and
- the sum(s) insured.

Prior to sending your renewal invitation we will adjust your sum(s) insured.

It is important that you check the sum(s) insured before renewing each year to satisfy yourself that they continue to represent current full replacement values.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into this insurance with us, you have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.

The Act imposes a different duty the first time you enter into a contract of insurance with us to that which applies when you vary, extend or reinstate the contract.

This duty of disclosure applies until the contract is entered into (or varied, extended or reinstated as applicable).

Your Duty of Disclosure when you enter into the contract with us for the first time

When answering our specific questions that are relevant to our decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms, you must be honest and disclose to us anything that you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in answer to the questions.

It is important that you understand you are answering our questions in this way for yourself and anyone else that you want to be covered by the contract.

Your Duty of Disclosure when you vary, extend or reinstate the contract.

When you vary, extend or reinstate the contract with us, your duty is to disclose to us every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

What you do not need to tell us

Your duty however does not require disclosure of any matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by us; or
- that is of common knowledge; or
- that we know or, in the ordinary course of our business as an insurer, ought to know; or
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by us.

Non-disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under the contract in respect of a claim, cancel the contract or both.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, we may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Privacy Information

We collect your personal information directly from you where reasonably practicable or if not, from other sources. We collect it to provide our various services and products (e.g. to market, arrange and administer insurance and to handle and settle claims) and to conduct market or customer research. We prohibit them from using it for purposes other than those we supplied it for. Where you provide us with information about another person for the above purposes, you must tell us if you haven't got their consent to this.
