Conditions of Entry

1. These Conditions of Entry must be read together with the Schedule. By entering, Eligible Entrants accept these conditions.
2. Entry is open to residents of the Applicable State/s who comply with the Entry Requirements (if any). Entries submitted by Ineligible Entrants are not accepted.
3. The competition will run during the Competition Period.
4. The Prize is not transferable or exchangeable and cannot be redeemed for cash. If a winner does not take a part of the Prize at the time set by NAB, the winner will forfeit that part. NAB accepts no responsibility for changes in Prize value. If a Prize is unavailable, NAB will substitute it for one of equal or greater value.
5. To enter, Eligible Entrants must follow the Entry Method, noting any Entry Requirements, and submit their entries during the Competition Period.
6. Entrants may only submit up to the Maximum Number of Entries.
7. All valid entries will be entered into the competition. Entries must be received during the Competition Period. NAB has no control over telecommunications networks and accepts no responsibility for problems associated with them. Entries are deemed received at the time of receipt into NAB's database, not at the time of transmission. Entries submitted using any form of automated entry device or software are ineligible. Entries not fully complying with these Conditions of Entry will be deemed invalid. NAB accepts no responsibility for late, lost, incomplete, delayed, corrupted, illegible or misdirected entries whether due to error, omission, alteration, deletion, destruction, transmission interruption, tampering, theft, destruction failure or otherwise.
8. The best 20 valid entries as determined by the judges according to the Judging Criteria will win the Prize described in the Schedule. The Total Prize Pool is set out in the Schedule.
9. This is a Game of Skill. Chance plays no part in determining winners. Each valid entry will be individually judged on the basis of the Judging Criteria. The judges' decision will be final.
10. All entries will become NAB's property. Each entry must be the entrant's original work and entrants agree that NAB may make copies of or publish their entry in any form or media. Entrants warrant that their entry is not, and its use by NAB will not be, in breach of any person's intellectual property rights or any other rights.
11. In consideration for awarding a Prize to a winner, winners agree to participate in any promotional activity regarding winning the Prize and consent to their name and image being used in promotional material without payment.
12. Entrants acknowledge that there may be some inherent risks in some aspects of using the Prize and that it is their responsibility to ensure that they are sufficiently healthy and fit so as to undertake activities associated with the Prize. It is a condition of accepting such Prize that upon request the winner will sign a legal release in favour of NAB and/or the issuer of the Prize and the agencies associated with the competition.
13. Winners will be notified on the Notification Date by the Notification Method described in the Schedule.
14. NAB may request winners to provide proof of identity and proof of residency. Identification considered suitable for verification is at the discretion of NAB.

15. NAB does not warrant and makes no representations that any Prize will be fit for any purpose or will be of merchantable quality. If liability under any terms implied at law cannot be excluded, the liability of NAB and its associated agencies is limited to the re-supply of the Prize or the cost of its re-supply.
16. If for any reason this promotion is not capable of running as planned or if the administration, security, fairness, integrity or proper conduct of this promotion is affected for any reason, NAB may in its sole discretion cancel, terminate, change or suspend the competition. NAB may disqualify any individual who tampers (or benefits from the tampering) with the entry process or the conduct of the competition or who has, in NAB's opinion, engaged in conduct, which is fraudulent, misleading or generally damaging to the reputation of NAB or has breached these Conditions of Entry.
17. NAB will not be liable for any mistake, loss (including without limitation, consequential or indirect loss), cost or damage, personal injury or death which is suffered (whether or not due to the negligence of any person) in connection with entering the competition or using the Prize, except any liability which cannot be excluded by law (and if so, that liability is limited to the minimum allowable by law).
18. NAB accepts no responsibility for any tax implications of Prize winnings. Winners should obtain independent tax advice to determine how this may affect their circumstances.
19. The personal information Eligible Entrants provide will be used by NAB, and may be disclosed to its agents, solely to conduct the competition and distribute the Prize. For more information about NAB's privacy practices, including how to request access personal information held by it and/or request that it be corrected, view NAB's Privacy Policy at www.nab.com.au or call 13 22 65 (or 1300 363 647 for hearing impaired individuals with telephone typewriters).
